

Preventing Discrimination, Harassment & Retaliation for Today's Supervisor

In the one year after #MeToo and the 'Weinstein Effect', are your leaders aware of conduct that derails respect? This is a great opportunity to get your people managers and supervisors up to speed on what they need to know as agents of your company.

Course Objectives:

- Understand types of conduct that derail respect and contaminate a company's culture.
- Define and understand all forms of unlawful harassment.
- Learn what the essential components of a policy against harassment are.
- Understand the reporting obligations of supervisors.
- Understand how to respond to complaints of harassment.
- Define retaliation and how to avoid it.
- Learn how to handle employee complaints with fairness.
- Learn how to address a problem behavior early.

Event Sponsors:

This is a MUST event
for anyone who manages people!

Tuesday, January 15
8:30 – 11:00 a.m.

Southern Minnesota
Educational Campus
Room 012

Only $45 per person

Sign up Now!

Featured Speaker

Crystal
Hanson

Founder & Owner of South
Creek HR